VI. Reports

- A. CPC:
- B. SFAC: Alison Galloway, Executive Vice Chancellor, is coming next Monday to have a Q&A. Contact Alice if you have any questions for Alison Galloway. Faculty members are trying to find solutions to funding athletics. There will be a meeting in the Conference Room above Baytree Bookstore on the third floor from October 22 and 23.
- C. SUA: Creating a new constitution so government can flow better. They are starting to focus more on organizing efforts than funding requests. Starting November 1, Senators can attend any committee meeting you want, except Vice President and Internal Affairs because those are appointed.
- D. SCOC: They did not appoint anyone for any committees. There a lot of committees that can pertain to your major. All of the committees can be found on ucsc.soc.
- E. Entertain Co-op: Hoping to open next Monday and be able to say they have opened at the next meeting. The shifts are staffed, 1-2 people per shift. John will be at all of the shifts to make sure everyone is trained properly. The Co-op will be opened every Monday, Wednesday, and Friday from 5PM to 7PM in room 135.
- F. Vice Chair: Will be meeting with the RAs and talk about culture incorporation. Fliers should have disability accommodations. Meetings are every Monday at 7:30PM. He will ask them questions posed by the Senate and expects the RAs to ask him at least two questions as well. The main goal is to connect the two groups together. Contact Jose if you have any questions. Meetings are every Monday at 7:30PM.
